LOCAL AND GENERAL
PORTLAND'S GUESTS
Enthusiastic and General Welcome
To John A. Logan.
A GREETING FROM 7000 PEOPLE
Great Gathering at the Metropolitan Hotel—Address
by Gen. Logan, Gov. Alger, Gen. Barretto and Judge Williams.

The Oregonian's trip to the coast, which arrived at 9:30 last night, was a pleasant trip, and the first of the season. The first twenty-four hours of the trip were spent in the city, and the remainder of the trip was spent in the country. The trip was a success, and the Oregonian's trip to the coast was a success. The trip was a success, and the Oregonian's trip to the coast was a success.

AT THE PAVILION
When the procession reached the Mechanics' pavilion, the crowd was so large that it was impossible to get into the pavilion. The crowd was so large that it was impossible to get into the pavilion. The crowd was so large that it was impossible to get into the pavilion.

THE NARROW GALE BRIDGES—Pile drivers are at work at the North and South Fork Santiam river bridges on the line of the Oregonian Ry. Co. (limited). Three sawmills are being used to cut the piles. The work is being done by the Oregonian Ry. Co. (limited). The work is being done by the Oregonian Ry. Co. (limited).

THE STAGE
The New Market—Last night "Across the Continent" was produced by the Metropolitan. The play was a success, and the Oregonian's trip to the coast was a success. The play was a success, and the Oregonian's trip to the coast was a success.
